JEFFREY H. DORFMAN

Dept. of Agricultural & Applied Economics
University of Georgia, Athens, GA 30602
(706) 542-0754 jdorfman@uga.edu

Education: Ph.D., University of California, Davis. Agricultural Economics. 1989.
B.S., University of California, Davis. Agricultural Economics. 1987.

Areas of Research: Regional Economic Development, Productivity/Efficiency Measurement, Bayesian Econometrics, Economics of the Food Industry, Quantitative Policy Analysis.

Positions: Professor (1998-present), Associate Professor (1993-1998), Assistant Professor (1989-1993) of Agricultural and Applied Economics, University of Georgia.

Interim Department Head, Agricultural and Applied Economics, University of Georgia. Dec. 2006 – May 2008.

Adjunct Professor of Pharmacy, University of Georgia, 1999 - 2008.

Acting Assistant Director of the Georgia Agricultural Experiment Stations, University of Georgia. March 1998 - August 1998.

Coordinator, Center for Agribusiness and Economic Development, University of Georgia. July 1997 - December 1999.

Honors and Awards: Elected Fellow of the Agricultural and Applied Economics Association, 2013.

North American Colleges and Teachers of Agriculture (NACTA) Teacher of Merit Award, 2013.

Elected honorary member of AGHON Honorary Society, 2010.

Southern Agricultural Economics Association Distinguished Teaching of a Course Award, 2004.

D.W. Brooks Distinguished Teaching Award (college wide), 2004.

ESCOP/ACOP Leadership Development Program, 1996-1997.

Gamma Sigma Delta Junior Faculty Award of Merit (Research), 1995.

Departmental “Outstanding Undergraduate Teacher,” 1998, 2001, 2003, 2006, 2011.

Departmental “Outstanding Graduate Faculty Teacher,” 1991 and 1992.

Advisor, AAEA Outstanding M.S. Thesis Award, Honorable Mention, 1995.

Valedictorian, University of California, Davis, 1987.

Committees:
Member, Agricultural and Applied Economics Association (AAEA) Fellows Selection Committee, 2014-2020.
Chair, 2013-2014, Vice-Chair 2012-2013, AAEA Awards Committee.
Chair, AAEA Econometrics Section, 2011.
Chair, UGA University Council Executive Committee, 2010-2011.
Member, UGA University Council, 2008-2011, 2012-2015.
Member, 2004-2006, American Agricultural Economic Association, Publication of Enduring Quality Award Selection Committee.
Member, 2004-2006 Southern Agricultural Economic Association Distinguished Teaching of a Course Award Committee.
Member, 2002-2005 American Agricultural Economic Association Nominating Committee.
Co-Chair, 1991 American Agricultural Economic Association Selected Papers Committee.
Member, 1993-1996, American Agricultural Economic Association Awards Committee, Research Discovery.
Numerous other university, college, and departmental committees, including chair of Both College and University Promotion/Tenure Committees.

Research Ranking:

Ranked 6th most productive among 1987-2000 Ph.D. graduates from U.S. Agricultural and Resource Economics Ph.D. Programs, in Hilmer, C.E., and M.E. Hilmer, "On the Relationship between the Student Advisor Match and Early Research Productivity for Agricultural and Resource Economics Ph.Ds." American Journal of Agricultural Economics 89(2007):162–175.

Teaching:

Experience teaching graduate courses in quantitative methods. Taught the department's required master's level class in applied econometrics and an elective Ph.D. class in dynamic optimization which covered calculus of variations, optimal control, and numerical optimization methods. Has won the department's graduate teaching award twice, undergraduate teaching award three times, an experiment station wide teaching award (D. W. Brooks Award), and the teaching award given by the Southern Agricultural Economics Association. Have also taught graduate microeconomic theory and graduate Bayesian econometrics. At the undergraduate level, developed and currently teaching a senior-level agricultural marketing class which focuses on the economics of food processing, distribution, marketing, and trade. Also teaching or have taught undergraduate microeconomic theory at the intermediate (junior year) level and the introductory level (freshman/sophomore year). Teaching approach utilizes class participation and in-class economic experiments to demonstrate many economic concepts.

Grant Funding:

Total funding over career of over $1,600,000 as a PI or co-PI. Projects funded by USDA-Economic Research Service, USDA-Forest Service, U.S. Agency for Health Care Research and Quality, the U.S. EPA, Food-PAC, Georgia Environmental Protection Division, the Georgia Forestry Commission, National Retail Federation, and the National Science Foundation.
